

Public Petitions Committee

References to petitions can be found in the Journals of the House of Representatives. They may be listed in the General Index under the heading 'Petitions' or as separate schedules in their own right. When a reference is found note the year, petition number, and to which select committee the petition is referred and whether a report on the petition was presented back to Parliament. A complete set of the Journals are held at National Library and some are also listed in Archway under Reference AAAA W4905 (use key word 'Representatives' to refine results) – holdings 1861, 1871-1874, 1877-1878, 1880, 1883, 1885, 1887-1888, 1890-1894, 1897-1898, 1903-1912 (restrictions may apply).

At Archives New Zealand most petition related records are held in the Legislative Department records (LE1 Series 18507). An Archway advanced record search using the phrase "Public Petitions" and Series 18507 yields 252 items dating from 1866 to 1961. It is estimated that more than half of the petitions presented have not survived. Each listed item generally refers to a bundle of records and these may include the actual petitions, minutes of the select committee, evidence related papers, and reports on petitions. As there are currently no item level descriptions for these files it is important to know the year of the petition and to perhaps consider searching the following year also if initially unsuccessful.

For example, the documents contained within the 1893 files (References AEBE 18507 LE1/325 1893/7 and AEBE 18507 LE1/326 1893/7) were grouped together for each petition. There were also references to 1892 petitions. Within some petition bundles there were quite a few 'old' documents referring to events dating back many years before – one went back to 1858. There is no clear order with regard to the arrangement of the papers – perhaps 1st and 2nd half of alphabet by the name of the petitioner and then loosely by date. Some documents refer to several petitions at once and these can be interspersed between petition bundles – so careful page by page perusal would be the best way to search thoroughly.

Please note: It is important that the order of the papers contained within these files remains as found Petition related records can also be found in other government departments. An Archway advanced record search using the phrase "Public Petitions" yields 1443 items dating from 1861 to 1980. Many of these items refer to correspondence records: Colonial Secretary 586; Justice 311; Army Department 176; Police 64...

For the period 1890-1952 listings of 'public petition' numbers, suggesting that records are held, can be found in Archway within the Series Description for "Series 18507 Papers brought before the Houses of Parliament and Records of Select Committees." Scroll down to the Additional Finding Aids Section and "List of Petitions in the LE Series 1890-1952." Public Petition numbers for the period 1890-1922 are also listed at the end of this document.

Published reports of the Public Petitions Committees can be found in the Appendices to the Journal of the House of Representatives (AJHR) and these include references to petition numbers.

Petition Nos 395 and 431 of J. Judson and 814 others, of Opunake, and G. F. Styles and 340 others, of Mount Egmont.

Petitioners pray for the construction of a railway-line from Opunake to Mountain Road. I am directed to report that in the opinion of the Committee these petitions should be referred to the Government for consideration. 18th October 1905.

On checking the listing of 1905 petition numbers – both Nos 395 and 431 are listed indicating that related papers survive
