Gloucester Citizen 16 Apr 1923 Death

April 13th, Mr Daniel Baxter, of Salem House, Rodborough, aged 90 years – Funeral will take place Wednesday, 18th inst., at Avening Parish Church, leaving house 1.30. No flowers by request.

Gloucester Citizen 18 Apr 1923

Mr Daniel Baxter, who died at his residence, Salem House, Rodborough, at the advanced age of 90 years, was exceedingly well known and highly respected in the commercial life of Stroud and district, and even much farther afield. Born at Avening, he served his apprenticeship in the woolen cloth industry with Messrs Playne and Co., of Longford. He subsequently took up a position with Messrs Strachan and Co., Fromehall Mills, and afterwards undertook the sale of wool on commission, his clientele extending throughout England. He was unmarried, and formerly resided at Fort William, Butterow, with his sister, who lived with him until her death some seven or eight years ago. Deceased, who had lived in retirement for many years, was in his day a keen sportsman, and always of a genial and straightforward disposition gained the confidence and esteem of clients and a large circle of friends.
