Bradford Observer 12 Aug 1841 Marriage

On Monday last, at the parish church, Bradford, by the Rev J. Meridyth, F. S. Hall, Esq., of the firm of Prest, Hall & Co., woollen drapers and manufacturers, Halifax, to Martha, third daughter of the late Mr Ogden of Bradford. [Francis Stewart Hall]

Bradford Observer 28 Jan 1847

The undersigned Executors of the late Michael Ogden Jun., who have since his decease carried on the woollen drapery business &c., at 16 Cloth Hall, Kirkgate, Bradford, under the firm of "Michael Ogden & Co.," beg most respectfully to inform their numerous Friends and the Public, that on the 13th instant, they sold and disposed of the Stock-in-Trade and all Debts owing to them on account of the said Business to Mrs Hannah Ogden (widow of the late Mr Michael Ogden) who will receive and pay all accounts belonging to the said Business. The Executors also take this opportunity of returning their sincere thanks to their Friends and the Public, for the liberal patronage which has been conferred upon them for the last eleven years, during which period they have carried on the business for the benefit of the late Mr Ogden's widow and family, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their favours on behalf of his widow, who intends to continue the business on her own account. George Ogden, Joseph Parkinson, Willson Cryer.

Hannah Ogden begs most respectfully to inform her numerous Friends and the Public that she has purchased the Stock of the Executors of her late husband, and succeeded to the business, lately carried on by them at 16 Cloth Hall, Kirkgate, Bradford. The stock comprises a large assortment of superfine West of England and Yorkshire broad and narrow Cloths and Cassimeres, in every variety of quality and colour, Beaver, Pilot, and double-milled Cloths, in all the fashionable and prevailing shades, Plain and Fancy Doeskins, Scotch Tweeds, &c. A splendid Assortment of rich French and Spitalfields Velvet and Satin Vestings, rich Persian Velvet, Toilanett, Quilting, Cashmerett, and other Waistcoatings in great variety. Woollen Velveteens and Cords, Cotton, Cords and Beaver-teens, Gentlemen's fancy Handkerchiefs, Scarfs, Stocks, Gloves, &c., &c., and Tailor's Trimmings. The whole of which she is determined to offer at such decidedly low prices as cannot fail to give entire satisfaction to the purchaser. Hannah Ogden intends to continue the Business under the old firm of "Michael Ogden & Co." and will be assisted by her sons, who have had the management of it for the last eleven years. She cannot allow this opportunity to pass without returning her sincere thanks to the very numerous friends who patronised her late husband, for the many years during which he carried on the business, and also his Executors since his decease; and desires to offer her grateful acknowledgements to the public in general, for the extensive patronage with which they have favoured the Establishment, and pledges herself that no efforts shall be wanting on her part to secure a continuance of the same.
