

Register of Deaths in the Wellington District since the Foundation of the Colony 1840-1847

Appendix to The New Zealand Journal 1848 page 291

1840 – Son of Henry Baker, aged 2, drowned; daughter of Mrs Miller, aged 24, consumption; wife of Thomas Susans, childbirth; wife of James Woods, aged 30, cause unknown; two children of Edward Head, aged 2 and 1, drowned; son of Robert Park, aged 2, teething; wife of Adam Reid, aged 46, decline; son of Samuel Woodward, aged 11 months, cause unknown.

1841 – Wife of Thomas Irving, aged 25, fever; wife of John Wade, aged 22, consumption; daughter of Thomas Avery, typhus fever; son of James Fisher, aged 19, dropsy; wife of Charles Cottle, aged 30, decline; daughter of John Francis, aged 16, decline; son of David Wilkinson, aged 7 months, inflammation of the lungs; son of Robert Fill, aged 18, inflammation of the lungs; daughter of John Murray, aged 5 days; son of Robert Hopton, aged 4 years, decline.

1842 – Daughter of John Murray, aged 2 weeks; infant of W. Clarkson; infant of W. Meech, convulsions; infant of D. McLachlan, convulsions; brother of Philip Murch, aged 40, fever; niece of Philip Murch, aged 8; infant of Philip Murch, aged 6 months, inflammation of the lungs; son of John Phillips, aged 4 years and son of John Phillips aged 6 months, decline; son of John Southie, aged 12, cause unknown; son of John Mitchell, aged 18, fever; wife of Samuel Firmiger, dropsy; son of James Branger, accidental; son of John Hall, aged 2 months, jaundice; son of Thomas Charles Butler, aged 2, accidental; son of Richard Milner, aged 2, thrush; child of William Gill, aged 5 months, convulsions; son of John Bell, aged 7, decline; daughter of Stephen Penfold, aged 1, fever; daughter of James Inghs, aged 6 months, decline; son of Elizabeth Jackson, inflammation of the bowels; wife of Henry Tiffin, aged 22, childbirth; daughter of William Membury, aged 7, dropsy; infant of James Scott, aged 9 weeks; wife of A. D. B. Brandon, aged 28, decline; Edmund Cording, aged 53, inflammation; daughter of George Buck, aged 2, decline; daughter of John Cook, aged 2½, dropsy; James McCarthy, aged 25, accidentally shot; William Watters, aged 30, diseased heart; son of William Pike, aged 2, decline; wife of William Harvey, aged 49, decline; wife of James Hobman, aged 35, child-birth; son of Henry Leight, aged 3, inflammation of the lungs; wife of James Cattell, aged 35, accidental; son of James Phillips, aged 6 months, inflammation of the lungs; son of James Stoodley, aged 10 weeks; William Friend, aged 33, drowned; son of John Whitehouse, aged 5, decline; son of John Tomlin, aged 4, decline; daughter of Nathaniel Jennis, aged 10 weeks, teething; two children (twins) of James Spiers, aged 3 months, cause unknown; daughter of William Dodge, aged 6 months, burnt; Zachariah Cately, aged 33, drowned.

1843 – Daughter of Richard Milner, aged 10 weeks, convulsions; two children of William Gill, aged two days, weakness; infant of Alexander Lyall; son of Alexander Farmer, aged 6 months, convulsions; infant of Richard Baker, convulsions; infant of John Hodges, convulsions; daughter of Samuel Firmiger, fever; George Hunter, aged 55, apoplexy; infant of George Hendry, sickly from birth; daughter of Isaac Fisher, aged 2, cold; son of James Mayo, aged 1½, inflammation of the lungs; daughter of Charles Henry Squibb, aged 18, insane; husband of Mrs Davis, aged 32, decline; infant of Robert Duncan, decline; daughter of Robert Hopton, aged 2, decline; son of David Johnstone, aged 3, inflammation of the lungs; Rev. Mr Mason, aged 34, drowned; infant of Martin Levin, teething; wife of Edward Swallow, aged 25, decline; son of John Waterson, aged 15, fever; wife of Michael Dixon, aged 45, dropsy; son of Michael Dixon, aged 4 months, dropsy; Israel Trask, aged 43, dysentery; son of David Hargreaves, aged 3, consumption; son of Hugh Morrison, aged 22, cause unknown; wife of Joseph Willmore, aged 26, decline.

1844 – Infant of John Frazer, aged 3 months; Mrs Melor, aged 2 months, convulsions; wife of Alexander Hurley, aged 36, childbirth; infant of Alexander Farmer, aged 6 months; Henry Garrod, aged 38; son of Thomas Sellars, aged 16, decline; son of George Ashdown, aged 1; wife of Peter Hume, aged 30, consumption; wife of Hugh Morrison, aged 44; daughter of John Edwards, aged 20, consumption; Charles Bell, aged 31; son of John Reading, aged 2, decline; James Scott, found dead in the bush at KaiKora; - Scanlon, drowned at sea; Thomas Dennis Pratt, drowned at Wairarapa; son of James Lissendon, aged 1; William Hayward and son, both drowned at Wairarapa; son of Robert Wilton, aged 1; son of David Smith, aged 18, drowned at Wairarapa; infant of William McDowall, aged 5 months; son of Mrs E. Tucker, aged 5, drowned; son of Thomas Darren, aged 7, drowned; Simon Row, paralytic; William Tullett, drowned at sea; son of David McEwen, aged 4, accidentally drowned; daughter of Charles White, aged 2, drowned.

1845 – Richard B. Barnes; infant of W. Cattell, died soon after birth; son of Charles Stephens, aged 1, teething; infant of William Hodges, aged 7 months, teething; daughter of Robert Bradfield, aged 2, accidentally scalded; infant of James Fisher; son of John Eslick, aged 1, inflammation; William Friend, aged 18, drowned at the Hutt; infant of Henry Bentley, died soon after birth; infant of Thomas Brown, died soon after birth; son of Charles Dixon, aged 11 months, accidentally drowned; son of Michael Dixon, aged 11 months, decline; son of John Sellers, aged 1, teething; son of James Hallett, aged 2, bowel complaint; son of William Tandy, aged 17, drowned; son of James Wiley, aged 1, drowned.

1846 – Daughter of Alexander Farmer, aged 2, convulsions; Robert Houghton, aged 49, inflammation; wife of William Cracknell, aged 43, childbirth; Donald Smith, aged 31, fever; Thomas Underwood, aged 42; Andrew Gillespie, aged 37, and son, aged 11, both killed by the natives; son of Stephen Penfold, aged 8 months, disease of the brain; James Hobman, aged 42, consumption; son of John Lingard, aged 3, dropsy; daughter of James Futter, aged 18, decline; daughter of James Futter, aged 7, accidentally burnt; son of Robert Bould, aged 2, inflammation of the lungs; son of Hugh Cameron, aged 21, consumption; son of Alexander Grant, aged 3 months, weakness; wife of Peter McGregor, aged 26, decline; William Pitt Harvie, aged 33, insane; Richard Rush, aged 45, killed by the natives; John Oseman, aged 23, killed by the natives; James Holmes, aged 32, drowned; James Swan, aged 22, accidentally shot; John Hicks, aged 22, accidentally shot; daughter of Charles Mounsher, aged 2 months, disease of the brain; daughter of Nathaniel Sutherland, aged 2, affection of the brain; James Jackson, aged 37, rupture of bloodvessel; daughter of Mrs Lowe, aged 1, teething; daughter of James Lessington, aged 11 months, cause uncertain; wife of James Fisher, aged 23, apoplexy; son of James Jones, aged 8 months, teething.

1847 – Daughter of George Webb, aged 11 weeks; James Shelley, aged 37, dropsy; Samuel Florence, aged 29, accidentally drowned; William Allen, aged 39, erysipelas in the head; infant of F. J. Knox; infant of John Kitson, weak from birth; wife of Robert Rose, aged 49, cancer; wife of William Villers, aged 38, childbirth; daughter of Isaac Lovelock, aged 13, stoppage of intestines; son of William Baggarley, aged 2, dropsy; daughter of John Hall, aged 3, convulsions; son of Robert Edwards, aged 16, fever; Thomas Anderson, aged 28, consumption; son of John Fitchet, aged 2, dropsy; William Barnett, aged 31, consumption; wife of John Watterson, aged 40, dropsy; daughter of Charles Collis, aged 9 months, water on the brain; son of Richard Clifton, aged 3, inflammation of the lungs; daughter of Mrs Rush, aged 1, teething; William Cook, aged 22, drowned; wife of John Branks, aged 29, accident; Robert Ralph, aged 50, liver complaint; Mary Ovingdon, aged 21, consumption; son of Matthew Hobman, aged 12, murdered by the natives.